Getting married at The Ned couldn't be easier. We can take care of everything you need, from the ceremony and your menu, to the flowers and music. Weddings at The Ned take place on the historic sixth floor, which has six rooms and two outdoor terraces with views across the City. There's space for weddings of all sizes, whether you want an intimate affair for 50, or a large-scale gathering of 180.

Takeover the entire sixth floor for the day and along with hosting your ceremony, drinks reception and dinner, you'll also have space for any extras you might want, like a photobooth room, a dedicated present area, a green room for the band or somewhere for children to play. Our chefs will work closely with you to create your perfect wedding menu – from canapés and light bites, to a formal sit-down dinner and late-night snacks to keep your guests going until the early hours. Ned's Club Spa is just a lift ride away, to ensure getting ready on the big day is as seamless as possible. We offer manicures, pedicures and facials, and Ned's Barbershop and Parlour for hair services too.

As a couple, you'll spend your wedding night in our Terrace Suite, with arched windows, a four-poster king-size bed, and your own private terrace. With a total of 250 bedrooms, there's also room for your wedding guests to rest their heads at The Ned once the party is over, so you can re-live the whole day again over breakfast.
